The end of the long isolation is in sight !

Catalogue: VINCENT

Welcome to our latest polar catalogue. We are now up to the letter V in the alphabet for our catalogue, and this one is named after Vincent, able seaman on the Endurance Expedition.

These times of the Covid pandemic are very odd for us all but we hope this finds you well and bearing up in whatever stage of lockdown you are. In the UK it seems as though the end is in sight. Let's all hope for a better 2021.

I have recently bought some rare Arctic and Franklin items. The main ones are listed on pages 28, 32, 36, 37 and 39. There are separate Arctic and Antarctic sections in this catalogue, and other sections as follows:

- Pages 4 to 25 Antarctic Books
- Pages 26 to 40 Arctic Books
- Page 41 Newly Published Polar Books
- Pages 42 to 46 Polar Ephemera

Clearer, colour pictures can be seen at www.kingsbridgebooks.co.uk

If the book you are looking for is not in this catalogue, then please get in touch as we do have many other books (and items of ephemera) not listed here. Please let us know if you would like more details about the content or condition of any of the books. Images can be emailed if required.

Happy hunting....and, above all, keep safe !

Paul Davies

* Many books sell very quickly therefore so it is best to ring or email straight away, then Andrea or I can reserve them for you.

* Because of the costs involved, we regret that if you do not place an order after receiving three issues of our catalogue we will no longer be able to send it to you, unless you specifically ask for it.

In June 1875, Frederick George Innes-Lillingston (1849-1904) set out for the Arctic aboard Pandora, a steam yacht captained by the seasoned polar explorer Allen Young (1827-1915). In this, the first of two voyages north, Young sought to make the north-west passage.

His lieutenant Innes-Lillingston published this short account in 1876. It follows the voyage through to Peel Strait, where Young was forced to turn back in the face of heavy ice. On the journey home, the Pandora picked up the dispatches of the expedition under George Nares that was attempting to reach the North Pole. Conveying both the thrill and difficulty of the endeavour, this narrative provides a highly readable account of seafaring in extreme conditions.
